JULAU (Sarawak), March 25 (Bernama) -- Julau Member of Parliament Datuk Joseph Salang has called on the rural people in Sarawak to continue to support the Barisan Nasional (BN).

He said only the BN government understood their problems and worked hard to resolve them.

Salang, who is Deputy Information, Communications and Culture Minister, spoke to reporters here last night after returning from a visit to three longhouses, Unjong Payong in Nanga Ensiring, Michael in Nanga Baketan and Sali in Entabai.

The three-term Julau MP said he would abide by the wishes of the Parti Rakyat Sarawak (PRS) and BN leadership on whether he should defend the seat again or step down.
