KOTA KINABALU, March 25 (Bernama) -- Wanita Umno executive council (exco) member Datuk Azizah Mohd Dun has urged members of the movement to maintain the momentum as the party's backbone to ensure victory for Barisan Nasional (BN) in the 13th general election.

The Sabah Minister of Community Development and Consumer Affairs said the spirit of Wanita Umno should not be deterred and they had to continue struggling for the party and people especially in Sabah.

"Our spirit to keep on fighting for the party will remain strong despite various challenges because the Wanita movement is loyal to the party. The Wanita Umno struggle is sincere and we do not expect anything for the sake of personal. Our sustenance comes from God," she said at the "Jalinan Rakyat" programme at Kampung Kota Klias hall in Beaufort, here Sunday.
