KUALA LUMPUR, March 27 (Bernama) -- The Ministry of Youth and Sports has received 190 applications from youths interested to participate in the Malaysian Youth Parliament, said its deputy minister, Datuk Razali Ibrahim today.

He said an evaluation panel would be appointed to study each application based on the criteria stipulated to become a member of the Youth Parliament.

"From the forms, we can evaluate the candidates who are qualified. However, the committee will choose youths who are qualified to fill the existing seats," he said when winding up the motion of thanks for the Royal address for the ministry at the Dewan Rakyat Tuesday.
