KUALA LUMPUR, March 27 (Bernama) -- Eighty per cent of the recommendations to improve the country's electoral process are ready for tabling in parliament, said Datuk Seri Dr Maximus Ongkili, chairman of the Parliamentary Select Committee (PSC) on Electoral Reform.

He said most of the recommendations submitted to the committee had been accepted, with the exception of several more which needed further scrutiny at their meeting tomorrow.

"Tomorrow is the committee's final meeting; there are still several issues which we think we need to agree on...but I can say that 80 per cent have been agreed upon and adopted as recommendations," he told reporters after chairing the PSC meeting at parliament house, here Tuesday.
