KUALA LUMPUR, March 28 (Bernama) -- The Barisan Nasional (BN) can win the 13th general election if all its machinery were united and worked harder, said former Wanita Umno head Tan Sri Rafidah Aziz.

Rafidah, who is also the Member of Parliament for Kuala Kangsar, said the BN government had implemented various development projects for the benefit of the rakyat and it was capable of becoming a responsible government that could take the nation to greater heights.

Describing the BN as a net that had protected the people for so long, she urged them to evaluate the importance of the 'net' for them.

"Do not burn the net just because of a bug. If there are holes in the net, we must help to repair them. The bug can be discarded, but never burn the net," she said at a programme, 'Teh Tarik Bersama YB', here Tuesday night.

Rafidah said that if not for the BN government, Malaysia would not be able to achieve what it had today.

The veteran Umno leader also repeated her intention to give up the Kuala Kangsar Parliamentary seat to make way for new faces.
