KUALA LUMPUR, March 29 (Bernama) -- Bursa Malaysia Bhd is upbeat about maintaining its performance after recording a strong Average Daily Volume Traded (ADV) in the first two months of 2012 despite the challenging market environment.

"I think the first two months is quite strong with the ADV tracking higher at 2.1 billion. I hope this will continue but the market is quite challenging.

"The exchanges in the whole world are also performing well in the first two months," CEO Datuk Tajuddin Atan said after Bursa Malaysia's 35th annual general meeting here Thursday.
