PASIR PUTEH, March 29 (Bernama) -- The government plans to develop a fishing township in Tok Bali costing over RM3.2 billion.

International Trade and Industry Minister Datuk Seri Mutapa Mohamed said the federal government would invest RM230 million while the private sector RM3 billion.

"The government's contribution includes building a RM71 million integrated fishery park and a RM100 million fish landing and collection centre," he said at the ground-breaking ceremony for Tok Bali port here Thursday.
