KUALA LUMPUR, March 9 (Bernama) -- Former transport minister Tun Dr Ling Liong Sik is ready to take the stand to answer three charges of cheating the Malaysian Government in the Port Klang Free Zone (PKFZ) project.

"Yes, of course, but on the advice of my lawyers," he said outside the courtroom today.

Dr Ling, 69, was asked by the media whether he was ready to take the stand after the High Court ordered him to enter his defence on the charges.
