KUALA LUMPUR, March 1 — Seventeen people including PAS deputy president Mohamad Sabu and Batu MP Tian Chua have been ordered to enter their defence for participating in the 2007 Bersih rally after the High Court allowed an appeal by the prosecution.

The Sessions Court had on November 19 last year acquitted all of them after ruling that the prosecution had failed to prove a prima facie case against them on charges of participating in an illegal assembly on November 10, 2007.

The prosecution filed an appeal against their acquittal on November 25 last year, claiming that the Sessions Court judge had erred in law and fact in acquitting them, according to a report in The Star Online today.
