KUALA LUMPUR: City Hall and Bersih 3.0 organisers on Wednesday failed to agree on the venue for Saturday's rally after meeting for almost an hour.

Mayor Tan Sri Ahmad Fuad Ismail said Bersih refused to compromise on the venue.

"Their excuse that we were too late to inform them of the alternative venue is inexcusable.

"So, I told them if time was too short it was because they had sent in their application letter late," he told a press conference.

Bersih 2.0 chairman Datuk S. Ambiga said the time given to the organisers was too short.

"So we can't change the venue at the last minute. If we do that, it would cause confusion," she said.
