TAPAH, April 16 (Bernama) -- MCA will continue to update its list of candidates for the 13th General Election before submitting it to Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak who is also the Barisan Nasional chairman said MCA Deputy President Datuk Seri Liow Tiong Lai.

He said though the list had been updated, the party would continue to study and scrutinize the candidates to ensure the list contained truly winnable candidates.

"Before submitting the list to the PM (Najib) will continue the process of scrutinizing the candidates. It will a continuous process," he told reporters here today after launching Tapah Hospital's Health Carnival.

The list of candidates for the 13th General Election will be determined by Najib.
