KOTA KINABALU, April 18 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak is scheduled to visit Sabah on Friday and Saturday.

According to a statement issued by the Press and Publication Office of the Chief Minister's Department, the prime minister would have a packed itinerary.

Shortly after arrival on Friday afternoon, the prime minister will attend the Malaysian Trust Fund Week 2012 at Likas Sports Complex, here.

He will later leave for Sandakan on the state's east coast to attend the 1Malaysia gathering with the people for the Sandakan and Batu Sapi parliamentary constituencies at Dewan Hakka.

The next day, the prime minister is schedule to go for a walkabout at Taman Mawar and Bandar Kim Fung, Sandakan, before returning to the national capital.
