SHAH ALAM, March 24 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak will hand over aid to about 4,000 flood victims in Hulu Langat and Ampang tomorrow.

Selangor Barisan Nasional (BN) coordinator Datuk Seri Mohd Zin Mohamed said in a statement here Saturday that the presentation would be held at 11am at the Dusun Tua National Youth Skills Training Institute in Hulu Langat.

He said the National Security Council, 1Malaysia Development Berhad Foundation, and National Unity and Integration Department would also be contributing aid to the flood victims.

"Besides cash, the victims will be given kitchen equipment, school uniforms, mattresses, food items and so on," he said.

Mohd Zin said additional contributions would also come from non-governmental organisations and corporations including Kelab Putra 1Malaysia, Yayasan Kelana Ehsan, and Tesco and Mydin hypermarkets.
