KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 9 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has announced an allocation of RM2 million for the setting up of the Ex-Kemas Members Association Foundation.

The announcement was made at an assembly and presentation of special aid to the first batch of 2,500 former contract staff of the Social Development Department (Kemas) at the Putra World Trade Centre here Wednesday.

The former contract staff each received RM3,000 for their service of over five years with Kemas.

The special aid payout was in line with the announcement made by the prime minister when tabling the 2012 Budget.

All eligible ex-Kemas members could apply for the aid by filing the form available at Kemas headquarters and offices nationwide.
