KOTA KINABALU, April 3 (Bernama) -- The final report of the Parliamentary Select Committee (PSC) on Electoral Reforms tabled by Datuk Seri Dr Maximus Ongkili in the Dewan Rakyat Tuesday touches on the issue concerning parliamentary seat allocation for Sabah and Sarawak.

Ongkili, the PSC chairman, said the committee took note of the proposal for a balance in the number of Dewan Rakyat seats between the peninsula, and Sabah and Sarawak, as spelled out in the Inter-Government Committee (IGC) report during the formation of Malaysia in 1963.

The document stated that Sabah, Sarawak and Singapore would have 34 per cent of the Dewan Rakyat seats for that term, Ongkili said when tabling the report in the Dewan Rakyat today.
