GEORGE TOWN, April 3 (Bernama) -- Malay right wing group Perkasa is considering legal action against news portal Malaysiakini and a videographer attached to the Chief Minister's office, Lilian Chan.

Penang Perkasa Youth chief Mohd Rizuad Azudin said its lawyers were carrying out investigations whether to sue Malaysiakini or Lilian following an allegation against him and Perkasa.

Malaysiakini yesterday reported that Lilian was kicked twice on her leg by a member of Perkasa in a gathering organised by Perkasa last Friday.

"I strongly deny the claim. It is clear that a third party is trying to damage my reputation. Why accuse me and Perkasa?" Mohd Rizuad told reporters after lodging a report at the North East Police Headquarters, here Tuesday.

He hoped police could carry out a detailed investigation on the claim and he also challenged Lilian to undergo examination at a hospital to determine if she was kicked.

"Is she sure it was a Perkasa member or myself who kicked her? I am confident I did not do it because Perkasa has no problem with the people," he said.
