KUALA LUMPUR, April 3 (Bernama) -- Media personnel who are working on polling day are now eligible to vote by post after the proposal by the Parliamentary Select Committee on Electoral Reforms (PSC) was passed without debate in the Dewan Rakyat Tuesday.

However, the proposal was among four suggestions which were rejected by some members of the committee when PSC members voted on them.

PSC chairman Datuk Dr Maximus Ongkili said with the proposal, all media personnel, verified by their employers to be on duty on polling day out of their voting constituencies could apply to vote through Form 1 (Application for Postal Ballot Paper).
