KUALA LUMPUR, April 4 (Bernama) -- The High Court has fixed April 12, to decide on the Government's objection to leave application for a judicial review by local residents against Lynas Advanced Materials Plant in Gebeng, Pahang over a temporary operation licence given to Lynas.

Judge Datuk Rohana Yusuf set the date after hearing submissions from the parties Wednesday.

On Feb 17, the group of 10 residents filed the application, naming the Atomic Energy Licensing Board (AELB), which oversees the production, application and use of atomic energy and radioactive material, the Director-General of Environment Quality and Lynas Malaysia Sdn Bhd (Lynas) as respondents.
