KOTA KINABALU, April 4 (Bernama) - The Malaysian Council of Former Elected Representatives (Mubarak) will submit a list of former elected representatives to the Barisan Nasional (BN) leadership for consideration as candidates for general election.

"We are not going against the party leaders but do what is necessary and if the candidates (Muabarak members) are suitable and winnable, then we will promote them," Mubarak president Datuk Seri Abdul Aziz Abdul Rahman told reporters after a Mubarak function here today.

He said that the list of qualified candidates form among former elected representatives nationwide is in the final stage of scrutiny.\
