KUALA LUMPUR, April 4 (Bernama) -- Various programmes lined-up in conjunction with the installation of Tuanku Abdul Halim Mu'adzam Shah and Tuanku Hajah Haminah as the 14th Yang di-Pertuan Agong and Raja Permaisuri Agong next week will involve the multi-racial people in the country.

Minister of Information, Communication and Culture Datuk Seri Dr Rais Yatim said the public programmes, which were scheduled for April 11 to 21, would not only add colours to the historical event, but would also give the public the opportunity to improve their understanding of the monarchy system.

Rais, who is also the 14th Agong's installation organising committee chairman, said that apart from the installation ceremony and the royal banquet on April 11, a Yasin recital and thanksgiving prayer (April 12) and special Friday prayer sermon (13 April) will also be held at Masjid Negara.
