ALOR SETAR, April 4 (Bernama) -- Kedah State Legislative Assembly speaker Datuk Dr Abdul Isa Ismail said the assembly would wait for the report on the status of Datuk Syed Sobri Syed Hashim from the Insolvency Department before taking any action.

"I cannot give any comment on the issue of Syed Sobri's bankruptcy as I only got to know about it from media reports," he said when contacted by reporters here Wednesday.

He said a letter to obtain a complete report on the status of the Kuala Nerang state assemblyman had been sent to the Insolvency Department today.

As the head of the legislature, Syed Sobri needed to inform him of the bankruptcy so that appropriate action could be taken.

Abdul Isa said Syed Sobri not only did not inform him that he had been declared bankrupt since December, he was in fact still receiving the state assemblyman's allowance for January, February and March.
