KUALA LUMPUR, April 5 (Bernama) -- The Election Commission (EC) should not be pressured but instead be given space and time to go through all the recommendations made by the Parliamentary Select Committee (PSC) on Electoral Reform before a final decision is made, said Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Mohamed Seri Nazri Aziz.

As such, he reminded all quarters including the opposition not to pressure the EC and the government to implement the recommendations before the next general election.

"It has only been two days since the Dewan Rakyat passed the recommendations made by the PSC. I urge everyone to be patient, I am sure the EC will implement without delay the recommendations it can," he said when replying to a question from Dr Tan Seng Giaw (DAP-Kepong) in the Dewan Rakyat Thursday.
