KUALA LUMPUR, April 8 (Bernama) - Women, Family and Community Development Minister Datuk Seri Shahrizat Jalil whose service ends today is confident that the ministry will achieve more success under Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

She described Najib's announcement to be acting minister as the right move and most meaningful gift for all, especially ministry staff and target groups.

"I am thankful that after I leave, the ministry will come under the helm of the Prime Minister and will be in good hands.

Shahrizat was speaking to reporters after opening 'Swadaya Mahabbah Tahfiz 1Malaysia' programme attended by over 1,000 tahfiz students from Tahfiz Maahad Association (Permata) at Masjid Wilayah Persekutuan Kuala Lumpur, here Sunday.
