PUTATAN, April 8 (Bernama) -- Deputy chief minister Datuk Yahya Hussin expressed confidence that Barisan Nasional (BN) would continue to lead the Sabah state government after the next general election.

He emphasised that the confidence stemmed from Sabahans' solid and continued support for the party, which has proved its ability to rule the state well with ample development for the people.

He cited the Putatan parliamentary constituency as an example, describing it as a quiet town with only a few row of shops which has now been transformed to a bustling town with a network of roads, housing estates and shop houses.
