KUCHING, April 9 (Bernama) -- The Election Commission (EC) panel members will convene a meeting on April 18 to discuss and make decisions regarding the 22 recommendations made by the Parliamentary Select Committee on Electoral Reforms.

EC Chairman Tan Sri Abdul Aziz Mohd Yusof said the EC had received the recommendations after they were passed by the Dewan Rakyat without debate on April 3.

"Our seven-member panel will study all the recommendations before making any decisions on them," he told a press conference after opening a briefing sessions for general election returning officers and assistant returning officers here Monday.

He also stressed that the EC did not wish to make a hasty decision on the matter as it involved the existing election law and must be scrutinised in depth.

"We cannot afford to make any mistakes because if we do, people can bring us to court," he said, adding that a statement on the panel's decision would also be issued after the meeting.
