KOTA MARUDU, April 15 (Bernama) -- The Kota Marudu Barisan Nasional's (BN) machinery is all set to face the general election at any time, said its chairman Science, Technology and Innovation Minister, Datuk Seri Dr Maximus Ongkili.

Ongkili, who chaired a meeting with BN division leaders here Sunday, said the meeting discussed each component party's preparedness in facing the elections, including the setting up of polling centre committees and a main BN operations room.

"As a standard measure, BN component parties are also setting up their respective operations centres and updating their membership list.
