GUA MUSANG, April 15 (Bernama) -- The Kelantan Orang Asli Development Department has allocated RM1 million to implement various educational activities to improve the performance of students from the community this year.

The Kelantan and Terengganu Department's director Faridah Mat said the funds would be used to conduct motivation camps, tuition classes and other relevant educational activities to help more students succeed.

She remarked that last year's efforts showed good results, especially in the Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia examination.
