KUALA LUMPUR, April 17 (Bernama) -- The Election Commission (EC) expects a more challenging task in managing this coming 13th general election as the contest between the contesting parties is expected to be more intense than in previous elections.

Anticipating such a situation, EC chairman Tan Sri Abdul Aziz Mohd Yusof said, the commission would ensure all the election officers and workers understand and to enforce the election regulations to prevent any untoward incidents.

"We urge all parties to give their full cooperation to the EC. We cannot do it alone. We need their cooperation to ensure the contest between the parties goes smoothly," he told Bernama and Radio Televisyen Malaysia (RTM) after an interview by Klasik Nasional FM radio at Wisma Radio, Angkasapuri here, Tuesday.

On the names of voters in the electoral roll who are categorised as dubious voters, Abdul Aziz said, they could exercise their voting rights in the coming 13th general election if they are genuine voters.

"When they come to the polling centres, we will do the necessary checks before allowing them to vote.
