LABUAN, April 17 (Bernama) -- The Federal Territories and Urban Well-being Ministry will assist more than 100 families who are in a quandary following the conversion of Pulau Daat into an integrated petroleum project.

The ministry, with the cooperation of the Labuan Corporation, would look at alternatives to solve the islanders' problem in looking for new dwellings.

Speaking to reporters after a visit to the island Tuesday, Federal Territories and Urban Well-being Minister Datuk Raja Nong Chik Raja Zainal Abidin said that the matter would be tackled effectively based on humanitarian grounds.
