SHAH ALAM, April 17 (Bernama) -- The Port Klang Authority (PKA) has denied allegations that Transport Minister Datuk Seri Kong Cho Ha has dismantled and reversed all agreed steps to get to the bottom of the Port Klang Free Zone (PKFZ) scandal.

In a statement Tuesday, the PKA said several civil and criminal cases had been filed and investigations by the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission as well as the police were still on-going.

PKA also denied it has withdrawn all civil litigations against the turnkey contractor of the PKFZ project, Kuala Dimensi Sdn Bhd (KDSB).
