HULU TERENGGANU, April 17 (Bernama) -- The Terengganu government is distributing land to the people in the state through the Terengganu People Land Democratisation system.

Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Ahamd Said said the state government policy would provide a residential or agriculture lot to each Terengganu-born family who do not own land.

"Each family who applies will be given either a residential or agriculture lot spanning two acres with the condition that they (husband or wife) have no land," he told reporters after speaking at a land ownership grant distribution ceremony involving 1,372 recipients from Hulu Terengganu, here Tuesday.
