GEORGE TOWN, April 18 (Bernama) - The late Datuk P.K. Subbaiyah was a good friend and a hardworking colleague in Barisan Nasional (BN), says Penang Gerakan chairman Datuk Dr Teng Hock Nan.

"We had a lot in common including talking in Tamil language and had a good working relationship when we were state exco members during the previous BN state government," he said in a statement released Wednesday.

Subbaiyah, 63, is believed to have died from a heart attack while sleeping at home in Taman Meranti, Bagan Ajam here this morning.
