KUALA LUMPUR, April 18 (Bernama) -- The Parliamentary Select Committee (PSC) on Lynas is scheduled to hold the first public hearing during their visit to the rare earth factory in Gebeng, Pahang, from May 10 to 11.

PSC member and Kota Belud member of parliament Datuk Abdul Rahman Dahlan said another public hearing was scheduled for May 21 in Kuala Lumpur where pro and anti-Lynas groups would get to air their views.

"We'll be impartial and take in as many views as possible," he told reporters after attending the committee's first meeting at Parliament building here, Wednesday.

He said the select committee would probably submit its report by June 19.---BERNAMA
