SINGAPORE, April 20 (Bernama) -- The Singapore National Library Board today launched the Asian Children's Literature (ACL) Collection at the Woodlands Regional Library.

The launch was attended by Information, Communications and the Arts Minister Dr Yaacob Ibrahim.

In his address at the launch, Dr Yaacob said the ACL Collection was a treasure trove of materials encapsulating rich Asian culture and heritage.

The collection contains 23,000 books and audio-visual materials from throughout Asia, and is listed by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation as a "Nationally and Internationally Significant Collection".
