TAWAU, April 22 (Bernama) -- The Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) will resubmit its list of candidates for the coming general election soon, its president Datuk V.K. Liew said.

He said before this, the party had submitted a list of 20 candidates, but the party would resubmit the list to the BN's top leadership following the latest directive from BN secretary-general, Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor.

"We will see if there is a need for us to change the names that have been submitted before," he told reporters after opening the LDP's operations room for the general election here today.

Liew said the list of candidates to be submitted not only comprised winnable candidates but also "willing and able" candidates.
