KOTA KINABALU, April 6 (Bernama) -- The Sabah Barisan Nasional (BN) Youth will intensify its effort to produce more quality orators to counter attacks from the opposition in the coming general election.

Its chairman Awang Kadin Tang said this was in view the of issues raised by opposition parties lately in their attempt to get the support of the people.

He said for a start, the BN Youth would organise a three-day course on political oratory at 1Borneo, in Likas, here, on April 13.

"This is a talent search programme, which I feel important in the BN; and the most effective way is come up with the best orator," he said in a statement.

Awang Kadin, who is Sabah Umno Youth chief, said among the major criteria for a person to become a leader is his ability to articulate his views in an effective manner.
