PUTRAJAYA, April 6 (Bernama) -- Women, Family and Community Development minister Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil attended her last monthly meeting at the ministry here Friday.

She arrived at 4 pm for the closed door meeting and was given a warm welcome by the ministry's staff.

Shahrizat announced her resignation on March 11 following the National Feedlot Corporation case involving her family.

Shahrizat was the first Minister for Women and Family Development in 2001, which was later revamped to Ministry for Women, Family and Community Development by former prime minister Tun Abdullah Ahmad Badawi.

She is scheduled to attend several ministerial events the next two days before holding a press conference this Sunday, her last day in office.
