KUALA LUMPUR, March 7 (Bernama) -- The home ministry is not satisfied with an explanation by The Star newspaper over its Feb 27 publication of a photograph depicting a foreign artiste whose body was tattooed with the word, 'Allah'.

Therefore, it wants the English-language newspaper to submit recommendations to the ministry on firmer action to ensure similar mistakes were not repeated and could serve as a lesson in the future.

In a statement Wednesday, the ministry said it would like to emphasise to The Star and all media to take preventive action, corrective and informative, to prevent the display of personalised content affecting the sensitivities of the multi-faith society in the country.
