BERA, March 7 (Bernama) - PAS' "fatwa" that Bantuan Rakyat 1Malaysia (BR1M) is corruption is insulting to Muslims and party members who received the government aid.

Domestic Trade, Cooperatives and Consumerism Minister, Datuk Seri Ismail Sabri Yaacob said implementation of BR1M shows that the government is sincere in helping people earning less RM3,000 per month.

"If BRIM is considered to be corruption, then do the various government aid programmes to the people previously be deemed as corruption," he said after presenting BR1M aid to 480 people in Bera parliamentary constituency here Wednesday.

Ismail advised those who failed to get BR1M to apply before March 15 as the government will consider and approve them provided all information is correct.
