

Have breakfast with the prime minister

New Straits Times

10 May, 2012

By SHAHRUM SAYUTHI

ANTICIPATED EVENT: Kembara Mahkota Johor to be launched on Sunday

KULAIJAYA: MORE than 10,000 people from around this district will have the opportunity to join Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak for breakfast at TJ Supermarket near Saleng here as they wait for the start of the Kembara Mahkota Johor (KMJ) 2012 on Sunday.

Najib will be joined by Menteri Besar Datuk Abdul Ghani Othman at the breakfast session with the rakyat which will start at 7.30am.

The two leaders will mingle with the crowd as they wait for the arrival of Sultan of Johor, Sultan Ibrahim Sultan Iskandar and Tunku Mahkota Johor, Tunku Ismail Sultan Ibrahim who are expected to arrive for the start of the KMJ at 9.30am.

Kulaijaya district officer Kamaruddin Abdullah said the prime minister will deliver a speech at the launching of the royal tour by Sultan Ibrahim.

Sultan Ibrahim will also choose winners of a lucky draw from among the crowd.

"The prime minister will then flag off the participants of the KMJ, which will be led by Sultan Ibrahim.

"The KMJ convoy will head towards Sabana Cove Resort in Kota Tinggi."

Kamaruddin said people of Kulaijaya were invited to be at the event and join in the celebrations.

"This is an opportunity for the people of Kulaijaya to be proud of our district as it has been chosen to be the site for the launching of KMJ this year which will be made more meaningful by the presence of the prime minister."

Kamaruddin said a three-day carnival, dubbed Karnival Kulaijaya will also be held at the vicinity of the supermarket from May 11 to 13, on the occasion of the event.

"We are expecting up to 20,000 people to attend the carnival where various activities will be held which include exhibitions, sales of goods, employment opportunity campaign, blood donation drive, colouring contest for children and traditional performances."

Kamaruddin also reminded those who are interested to attend the breakfast session with the Prime Minister to come early to avoid traffic congestion.

Parking space will be provided at Sekolah Kebangsaan Cina Saleng, Taman Pancasila, Jalan Cermat and the Saleng Zoo area.

The public were also encouraged to consider using public transport to get to the site of the event.

Copyright © 2012 The New Straits Times Press (Malaysia) Berhad.

Source: <http://www.nst.com.my/nation/general/have-breakfast-with-the-prime-minister-1.82280>