ALOR SETAR: Barisan Nasional has the support of the youth, says Home Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Hussein.

He said the five-day Himpunan Jutaan Belia in Putrajaya recently was attended by millions of Malaysian youths of different races and religions.

He said this growing support was also evident at the "BN Choice of Young People" programme at Institut Perguruan Darulaman here yesterday.

"The spirit and enthusiasm shown by the youths here is something to be proud of and I hope that it will live not only among component party members but other young people, too.

"I hope events such as this will instill good values among the youths," said Hishammuddin.

Meanwhile, when asked about the Himpunan Hujau Menuju Putrajaya which was held here on Friday, he said PAS was free to hold such a gathering as long as it was peaceful.

"They can have the gathering as long as they obey the law. Their actions are a reaction to what they now see as the awareness and support of the people towards Barisan.

"We started the programmes with youths and it was a success. So now they want to follow," he said.
