KULIM: An Arab Spring-like change of government will not happen in Malaysia as the Barisan Nasional is not a cruel government, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

He said the mention of Arab Spring uprising was only meant for repressive governments in Libya and Egypt where there were unrest.

"It is not for Bahrain, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Malaysia or Indonesia.

"We are not a cruel government, even the (so-called draconian) Internal Security Act has been replaced with a Peaceful Assembly Act.

"Anybody can hold peaceful gatherings, including the Opposition, but they must not violate the laws," he said during his visit here.
