KUALA LUMPUR: The grounds of the Bukit Jalil National Sports Complex saw a festive air as 100,000 Umno members and supporters came from all over the country to celebrate the party's 66th anniversary here.

Outside the National Stadium, thousands of members were seen excitedly checking out many stalls which offered products ranging from food to clothing and also souvenirs.

Padang Terap Wanita chief Hasnah Abd Rahman, 52, was excited to join the grand celebrations.

"Forty of us came by bus from Kedah. It's nice to meet and interact with other members here," she added.

Others were seated before the main stage in the centre of the carnival grounds to watch the live telecast of the launching ceremony, while a special booth showcasing Umno's 66-year history.

Overseas Umno Clubs member Rima Istiana Sari, 20, said it was fun to help organise the exhibition.

"The public can know more of Umno's history and its efforts for the Malays," she added.

Rima said visitors could win a copy a two limited edition books by Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin by entering a lucky draw.
