SERDANG: Malaysians must do their part in ensuring the country remains peaceful as a peaceful country with long-term stability is a natural destination for foreign investment, said Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak on Thursday.

"We have to ensure that Malaysia is peaceful and free from violence; that we maintain peace and stability; that we respect the rule of law and that we honour our commitments to the international community," said the prime minister before opening the Malaysia International Tourism Exchange 2012 here.

He added that the Government would strive to ensure the country remained a firm favourite among tourists and serious investors.
