SINTOK, April 15 (Bernama) -- Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad pointed out today that the National Higher Education Fund Corporation (PTPTN), which Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim intends to abolish, was set up when the opposition leader was a deputy prime minister and finance minister.

"That's Anwar. He doesn't know what he is talking about; he is forgetful," he said when asked to comment on the statement by Anwar that he would abolish the PTPTN if Pakatan wins the next election.

Dr Mahathir said the PTPTN facility can be abolished for those who wanted the scheme scrapped.

"But we can continue to give (the facility) to those who do not want the PTPTN to be abolished," he said.
