NIBONG TEBAL, April 20 (Bernama) -- Nibong Tebal residents are getting ready for Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's visit on Sunday during his working visit to Penang.

Barisan Nasional Jawi state assembly coordinator Tan Cheng Liang said the preparations for the visit had been finalised and residents were excited about the prime minister's eminent arrival.

Speaking to reporters, Tan who is also Penang MCA Wanita chief, said the prime minister was expected to meet Chinese community leaders from Jawi New Village before adjourning to the people's dinner in Kampung Simpang Tiga, Nibong Tebal where some 20,00 people were expected to attend.

During the visit, Najib is also expected to hold a meeting with Chinese and Indian non-governmental organisations, and lecturers and student leaders from Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) at the Cahaya Siswa Complex, USM.
