KUCHING, April 21 (Bernama) -- Sarawak will hold its first meeting of the second term of the 17th state legislative assembly from May 14 until May 23, said assembly speaker Datuk Amar Mohamad Asfia Awang Nassar here.

He said the meeting would involve the tabling of some bills and a question-and-answer session among the assembly members.

"I have not received the full report on the bills to be tabled or amended; I will disclose it when I obtain it officially," he said when met at the closing of a mosque and surau management seminar for the Santubong parliamentary constituency Saturday.
