KOTA BAHARU, May 4 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak is satisfied with the preparation made by the Kelantan Barisan Nasional's (BN) election machinery to face the upcoming 13th general election.

Najib, who is also BN Chairman, expressed his satisfaction during a meeting with Kelantan BN component party leaders at Sultan Ismail Petra Airport, Pengkalan Chepa here.

The half-hour meeting was the last event in the prime minister's itinerary in his one-day visit to the state today before returning to Kuala Lumpur.

Speaking to reporters, Kelantan BN chairman Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamed said Najib had also expressed confidence that BN was capable of winning back Kelantan, which currently under PAS, in the next general election.

He said the prime minister also called on the BN election machinery to close ranks and move as a team to ensure victory for the party.
