KUANTAN, May 5 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak, Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin as well as several other Cabinet ministers today showed support for their wives at the Wives of Barisan Nasional Elected Representatives (PTIWRBNM) annual programme held at the Universiti Malaysia Pahang Sports Complex, here.

The Prime Minister then presented prizes including a challenge trophy to the winners of two events, bowling and badminton.

Sabah Barisan Nasional Elected Representatives Welfare Organisation (Bakisa) emerged as the champions in badminton after defeating the Association of Wives of Ministers and Deputy Ministers (Bakti) 3-2 in the finals, which also saw the Prime Minister's wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, who is also Bakti president, in action during the event.

Rosmah, who was paired with Datin Seri Lee Sun Loo, took down her opponents from Bakisa, Datin Seri Siti Jouyah Mohd Yunin and Datin Noraini Salleh, in 15-9, 15-1 in the first doubles.

However, the final result sided with the Bakisa team.

Meanwhile, for bowling, the event was won by the Welfare Organisation of Wives of Perak Elected Representatives (Baiduri), followed by Bakisa and the Welfare Association of Selangor Barisan Nasional Elected Representatives' Wives (Kasih) in third place.
