BANGI, April 9 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin is expected to announce some good news regarding the Public Service Department's scholarships Tuesday.

"The draft on the matter is being finalised," he told reporters here Monday.

Last year, the government had agreed that a total review would be done on the PSD's scholarship policy.

The review involves scholarships offered to excellent students for university intake and to Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia (SPM) holders for pre-university courses like the Sijil Tinggi Persekolahan Malaysia (STPM), matriculation and A-level.

Meanwhile, Muhyiddin, who is also Education Minister, said the ministry would study a proposal to make Islamic Studies as one of the must-pass subjects in all public examinations.

The proposal was made by Jalur Tiga (Jati) president Datuk Dr Hasan Ali, who said this would be a commitment towards preserving the sanctity of Islam.
